

ELEVENTH GRADE

THE PHASE WHEN THERE'S LESS DRAMA,
MORE STRESS, AND YOUR VERY BUSY
TEENAGER ANSWERS ALL YOUR QUESTIONS WITH, "JUST TRUST ME."

Your eleventh grader is changing...

PHYSICALLY

- Has difficulty falling asleep before 11pm (it's biological)
- Needs nine hours of sleep and one hour of exercise per day
- Girls have likely reached adult height and body development
- Guys may continue to grow in height, and develop muscle mass, body and facial hair

MENTALLY

- Can be insightful and incisive about complex issues
- Wired for risk-taking
- Highly self-aware; may think, "Everybody's watching me"
- Tends to be opportunistic and idealistic
- Struggles with long-term thinking
- More capable of grasping paradox, hyperbole, innuendo, and satire

SOCIALLY

- Dating relationships may become more "committed"
- Increased interest in sexual expression (54% of eleventh graders report being sexually active)
- Cares deeply about issues like control, responsibility, and freedom (both personally and globally)
- Tends to be self-focused, busy, and unavailable

EMOTIONALLY

- Values humor as a positive point of connection
- Becoming more at ease with who they are; may become more honest than in previous phases
- Often takes on more than they can handle
- May struggle with regulating emotions and social control

YOUR JUNIOR MAY IMPRESS YOU.

The rapid influx of hormones has regulated, the fight for peer acceptance has subsided, and the intensity of conflict over independence . . . well, they've worn you down. You may begin to see glimpses of rationality as your junior finds their voice, fills their calendar, and accomplishes surprising things.

“ACCOMPLISH” IS THE WORD FOR THIS PHASE.

Juniors often take on AP courses, volunteer activities, leadership roles, SAT prep, or an internship. Whether your teen is caught up in the race to win, or simply trying to survive, junior year is filled with pressure. Navigating all of this pressure is your junior's major accomplishment.

IT CAN BE HARD TO KEEP UP.

Actually, they don't expect you to keep up. What they really want is for you to trust them. After all, they will be out of the house soon, and you will have to trust them anyway. Let this be a practice year for both of you. Help them prove the ways they can be trusted, choose your battles wisely, and parent them in the areas that seem to be most challenging for them personally.

IT'S JUST A PHASE

SO DON'T MISS IT.

YOUR ROLE IS TO MOBILIZE
THEIR POTENTIAL

Your eleventh grader is ready to live the life they feel they were born to live—and they don't want to wait to get started. Two years is too long! Actually, next semester feels like forever in the future. Your junior is ready to do something, right now. Mobilize their potential by listening, guiding, and encouraging their self-expression.

THINKS LIKE A PHILOSOPHER

You help them learn when you . . .
ASK QUESTIONS.

WANTS TO KNOW,
“HOW CAN I MATTER?”

You capture their heart when you . . .
REFINE THEIR SKILLS.

IS MOTIVATED BY FREEDOM

You coach their moral abilities when you . . .
ENCOURAGE THEM TO SERVE OTHERS.

THIS YEAR YOU WILL FUEL PASSION SO THEY WILL KEEP PURSUING AUTHENTIC FAITH AND DISCOVER A PERSONAL MISSION.

In this phase, your eleventh grader is asking, “How can I matter?” A faith community can help them find significance by giving them opportunities to give, serve, and love others. Your eleventh grader will never get over seeing how God can work through them in meaningful ways. Encourage their personal faith journey by having conversations at home.

SAY THINGS LIKE . . .

“HOW CAN I PRAY FOR YOU TODAY / THIS WEEK?”

“WHEN DO YOU FEEL CLOSEST TO GOD?”

“WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT CHURCH / YOUTH GROUP?”

THERE'S NOTHING YOU WILL EVER DO THAT COULD MAKE GOD STOP LOVING YOU.

“LATELY, I'M FINDING I CONNECT BEST WITH GOD WHEN I'M . . .”

“ARE THERE WAYS YOU WOULD WANT TO SERVE IN OUR CHURCH OR COMMUNITY?”

Instill purpose by starting the day with encouraging words.

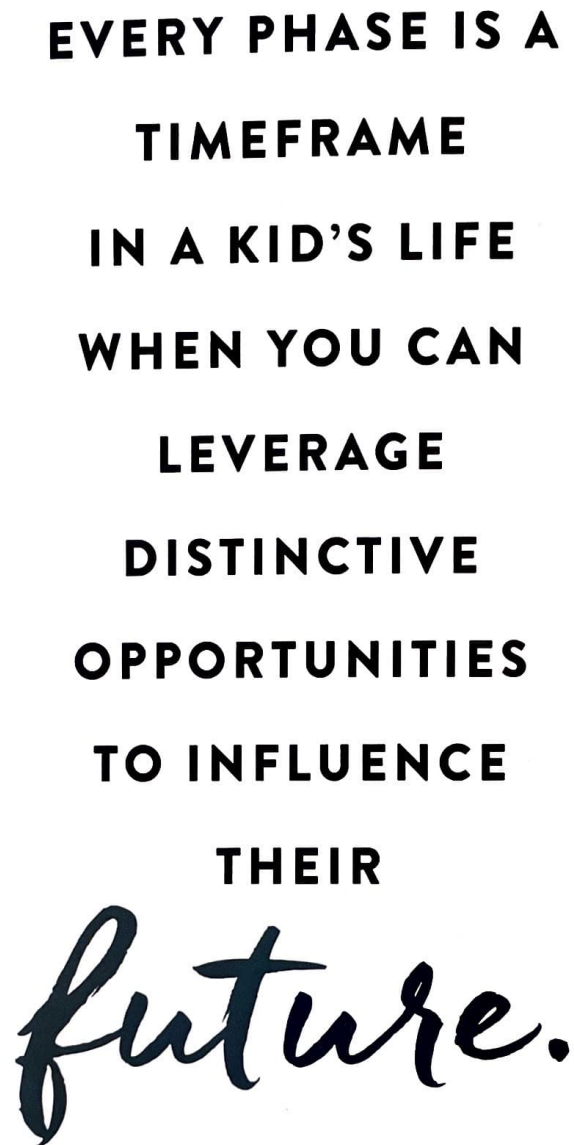

Connect regularly by scheduling time to eat together (even once a week).

Interpret life when they occasionally open up at the end of the day. (Stay consistently available —just in case.)

Strengthen your relationship by adjusting your plans to show up when they need you.
