OVERVIEW

El Roi, the God who sees me. As an apprentice of Jesus, we are called to truly see others the way God sees them: full of gifts and talents and unique characteristics that He perfectly designed in them. Then we are to invite them into what God is doing in us and ask them to join along. At Blue Ridge we call this shoulder tapping. Who is God asking you to invite along on your spiritual journey?

Scriptures: Matthew 4:18-22, 9:9; Luke 19:1-10; John 20:21; 1 Corinthians 11:1; 2 Timothy 2:1-2

APPLICATION

- Share about a person in your life who has made you feel seen (a coach, teacher, parent, neighbor, boss, etc.). What did they invite you into?
- Why do you think shoulder tapping is such a powerful tool for disciple making?

NEXT STEPS

- Who is God asking you to tap on the shoulder and invite into what He is doing in you?
- Share one practical step you are going to take this week to follow Jesus' example of seeing God's design in others.
